

Entering this Maison means breathing peace and harmony. In my country, the blood of innocent victims has been shed upon years of collaboration and cohabitation. Thanks to the work of President Michele Capasso, today this Maison has become a “Factory for Peace”: in the Balkans, in the Mediterranean and in the world...

Kiro Gligorov

President of the Republic of Macedonia

You can breathe the Mediterranean atmosphere in every room of this Maison: its history, geography, traditions, religions, customs, wisdom, flavours, its destiny...
Thank you again, Michele, thank you, to Michele and Rita.
