

I felt the suggestive charm of peace and harmony when I spent a few days in the Maison des Alliances. It feels like a sacred site that has become great on account of the aspirations, efforts and deeds of its President, Michele Capasso. There is no doubt that the work done here paves the way for peace. Michele's commitment here will benefit all countries. I pray to Allah that his mission may succeed.

Abdullah El Salmi

Minister for Religious Affairs (The Sultanate of Oman)

---

[widgetkit id=27]