

Spain has stood by the Fondazione Mediterraneo since the very first Euro-Mediterranean Conference in Barcelona, laying down the basis for the Euro-Mediterranean Partnership.

King Juan Carlos I and Prince Felipe di Borbone have expressed their appreciation for the important work carried out by President Capasso on several occasions.