

Dialogue and the strengthening of the peace process between Israel and the Arab world are central to the activities of the Maison.

President Capasso meets some of its major actors such as President Shimon Peres and President Khatami.